Letter from the President

In 2024, the Northern California Chapter focuses on “Design for Dignity,” uniting to address societal challenges and foster industry resilience.

Dear Patrons of the IIDA Northern California Chapter,

We have an exciting and important year ahead of us for the Northern California Chapter. Our Chapter Theme for 2024 is Design for Dignity, highlighting our belief that the strength of our society is measured by the way we treat our most vulnerable populations. We aim to provide the comfort, care and resources necessary for the dignity and equal access of everyone.

This theme has never been more relevant than it is today. We continue to find ourselves in a world facing multiple crises that challenge the dignity of individuals and communities. These crises encompass social inequities, public health, climate change, economic uncertainty and more. In the face of these unprecedented challenges, interior design plays a pivotal role in preserving and enhancing human dignity and promoting equality and justice.

In the last few years, our organization has been focused on implementing strategic initiatives that respond to some of the most pressing issues of today. Our Advocacy, Climate Action, EDI and Philanthropy programs continue to have meaningful impact on our community, yet it feels as though our industry still needs a good ‘Health Check’ to ensure that we as designers are equally directing energy into sustaining our own needs and healthy futures. The call to action over the next year is understanding how we can take care of each other so we can take care of humanity.

To protect and sustain our future generation of designers, we need to listen, nurture and inspire. Our chapter is a safe space for all. A neutral ground for partnerships and collaboration across all sectors and roles. Together we can explore new methodologies of collective care that allow us to thrive rather than just survive. Let’s make engagement embedded in who we are and what we do. We can be curious and ask beautiful questions. We can listen to one another with empathy and intent. We can lift one another up and celebrate our collective successes. It’s up to us to ask what the future of our industry could be not merely what it has been.

As a patron, you are our VIPs, and you play a critical role in our chapter’s success. We think you will find great value in connecting your organization to the larger commercial interior design community as IIDA is one of the premier platforms for business development and professional networking in our industry. We are doing great things, and we need your help to continue to double down on what we’ve started and keep up the momentum.

Your support not only strengthens our community but also enables us to provide the necessary guidance, resources and platforms for our emerging professionals and future leaders. We look forward to your continued partnership as we shape a brighter and more innovative tomorrow.

patron program

The award winning Northern California Chapter of the International Interior Design Association (IIDA) is a vibrant, active and diverse membership of more than 650 members. The greatest benefits of membership are the connections & camaraderie between our chapter members, which are both enjoyable and career enhancing.

We cultivate a strong community through the five major chapter events we host each year and the numerous Professional Development & City Center events that occur throughout the year. Being active in the management of the Chapter is an excellent way to improve your leadership skills and visibility. Staying informed about changing government regulation, licensing and other issues affecting interior designers is an important benefit of membership in IIDA Northern California.

aligning with intention

By aligning our Chapter and City Centers under a unified theme each year, we are able to address the needs of our local community in a relevant and meaningful way.

In 2024, our chapter will embrace the theme of “Design for Dignity.” We believe that the true measure of a society’s strength lies in how treats its most vulnerable members. Throughout the year, we are dedicated to fostering discussions and collaborating with organizations that work towards ensuring that every individual, regardless of their circumstances, enjoys the essential components of comfort, care, and access to vital resources. Our mission is to contribute to a world where dignity and equal opportunity are unshakable pillars of our collective values.

making a positive impact

IIDA NC is dedicated to prioritizing the climate crisis, showcasing the role of interior designers in driving positive change. Our Climate Action Committee organizes monthly Climate Crawls, where designers come together to exchange success stories and challenges in implementing sustainable strategies. We provide a wealth of resources on our website, sharing our members' initiatives to combat climate change. Through presentations and panel discussions, we foster a community-wide conversation and recognize leaders in the fight against climate change. Additionally, we work to gain support for vital climate resilience and mitigation legislation.

Together, we inspire, educate, lead, and hold our design community accountable for social and environmental responsibility.

igniting change

The IIDA NC EDI Committee is passionately committed to realizing IIDA's pledge for the deliberate dismantling of racism in all its forms. We prioritize nurturing, training, and uplifting individuals who contribute to the fabric of IIDA, aligning with progressive values that recognize the urgent need for justice in our industry and communities. Our work continues through sponsorships, facilitating essential conversations, hosting training workshops, and participating in speaking engagements, all aimed at raising awareness and fostering meaningful change within our industry.

Equity, Diversity & Inclusion is at the core of our mission as we strive to create an inclusive environment for all.
